Italian Trend for Wall

COLLECTION

MiniMe

One look...in petit version !

Something is about to change into decor world...

Nowadays kids are more stylish and have strong behaviour and their taste sensation is evolving such as the research and customization of the spaces especially for them. The MiniMe trend shows a coloured and particular world liked by anyone, which entertains and gives the chance to share. An "adult" style, free from identity gender where colours and details are structured up to create a simple and quite atmosphere. Thus, a new way to conceive the children bedroom is born, where everything is revolutionized!

Designs, colours, motifs and decoration evolve up to comply with the style of the whole home environment.
